TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

The Lenten Season is meant to make us grow closer to God by acts of sacrifice and reconciliation. Reconciliation helps us fight the things that estrange us from God. On this fourth Sunday of Lent, we are invited to humble ourselves and open our inner spiritual sight to be able to see God's hand at work. Christ guides us by his Light to help us see beyond what is on the outside.

MESSAGGIO DEL VANGELO

Il tempo quaresimale ci avvicina a Dio attraverso atti di sacrificio e riconciliazione. La riconciliazione, infatti, ci aiuta a combattere ciò che ci allontana da Dio. In questa quarta domenica di Quaresima, siamo invitati a umiliarci e ad aprire la nostra vista spirituale interiore per poter vedere la mano di Dio all'opera. Cristo ci guida con la sua luce per aiutarci a vedere oltre ciò che è esteriore.

Sunday

We are called to be faithful in small tasks

For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life. - Ephesians 2:10

Many terrible things happen every day that make us wonder whether the few things we do make sense or have any impact. When people are starving miles away, when wars are raging across the world, when countless people in our cities are homeless, our activities seem futile. Such considerations, however, can paralyze and depress us.

Here the word "call" becomes important. We are not called to save the world, solve all problems and help all people. But each of us has our own unique call, in our families, our work, our world. We have to keep asking God to help us see clearly what our call is and to give us the strength to live out that call with trust. Then we will discover that our faithfulness to a small task is the most healing response to the illnesses of our time.

What small tasks are you called to be faithful to today?
